Special Event:

Wake Reads Together

Join your neighbors in participating in the Wake Reads Together Program. This year's selection is Wolf Whistle by local author Lewis Nordan. Set in 1955 near Nordan's boyhood home in Mississippi, Wolf Whistle is the fictional account of the notorious racial killing of Emmett Till.

Thursday, Feb 12 at 7:00 pm

Music: Paula Snyder

Come listen to Paula Chafetz Snyder, a local vocalist, musician and writer. In honor of Valentine's Day, her performance will represent a personal history of love through poetry and music. Come and enjoy her heartfelt lyrics of love lost and found, friendship, and more.

Sunday, Feb 22 at 5:00 pm

Open Mic

Join us in the café as we relax with an open mic poetry session. This is a great way for writers and poets to check out the local poetry scene and get to know each other. Bring a piece of your work to share. This event is appropriate for all ages.
